

EastAsiaNet Workshop 2019

25-27 April 2019

Asian Dynamics Initiative, University of Copenhagen
Copenhagen Business School

University of Copenhagen
Committee room 3 (Udvalgsværelse 3)
Nørregade 10
1165 Copenhagen

ADI asian dynamics
initiative

Program

25 April

From 13:00 Registration and coffee/tea

Opening

Chair: Sarah Swider, University of Copenhagen

13:30-13:40 Welcome by Janus Hansen, Chair of ADI and Head of Department of Sociology, University of Copenhagen

13:40-13:50 Greetings on behalf of EastAsiaNet by Werner Pascha, University of Duisburg-Essen

13:50-14:40 Keynote lecture by Ayo Wahlberg, Department of Anthropology, University of Copenhagen
Restrained natalism - from family planning to family making in China and East Asia

14:40-15:00 Break

The "Good Life" in East Asia

Chair: Roger Greatrex, Honorary Member, Lund University

15:00-15:25

Wolfram Manzenreiter, University of Vienna
Social dimensions of subjective well-being in rural Japan

15:25-15:50

Fabienne Jagou, Lyon Institute of East Asian Studies (IAO)
Taiwanese entrepreneurs in search for the Good Life and the Good death through Tibetan Buddhist teachings

15:50-16:15

Sarah Swider, University of Copenhagen
Marxism and Christianity in China: converging resistance of worker solidarity and religious faith

16:15-16:30 Break

Emerging Scholars

Chair: David Pattinson, University of Leeds

16:30-17:00

Zi Wang, University of Duisburg-Essen
Leading a happy life as East Asian migrants in Germany: Exploring the nexus between language and happiness

Comments: Sarah Swider

17:00-17:30

Jieun Lee, University of Copenhagen
New Faces and Phases of Dementia in Korea: Early Diagnosis, Prognostication and the Making of (Relatively) Well Years

Comments: Michael Jakobsen

17:30-18:00

Sebastian Polak-Rottmann, University of Vienna
Participating is Fun: Local Political Participation and Subjective Well-being in Rural Japan

Comments: Peter Matanle

Dinner at FOOD CLUB

26 April

The "Good Life" in East Asia

	Chair: Sarah Swider, University of Copenhagen
9:00-9:25	Peter Matanle , University of Sheffield Searching for a Depopulation Dividend in the 21st Century. Perspectives from Japan, Spain and New Zealand
9:25-9:50	Jørgen Delman , University of Copenhagen The Politics of eco-civilization governance in Hangzhou, China: New pathways to green urban development and welfare?
9:50-10:15	Elise Domenach , Lyon Institute of East Asian Studies (IAO) Moral reflections on "the good life" in Hamaguchi Ryusuke's fiction films: Happy Hour (happi awa, 2015) and Asako 1&2 (Netemo Sametemo, 2018)
10:15-10:40	Daniele Brombal , Ca-Foscari University, Venice Area Studies and the Study of Urban Sustainability. Current Practice and Untapped Potential

10:40-11:00 Break

Revisiting the Internationalization of Japan

	Chair: Michael Jakobsen, Copenhagen Business School
11:00-11:25	Werner Pascha , University of Duisburg-Essen Japan's „Silk Subway“: Reacting to China's infrastructure initiative
11:25-11:50	Karol Zakowski , University of Lodz Interests vs. Animosities: Difficult Rapprochement with China under the Second Abe Administration
11:50-12:15	Dominik Mierzejewski , University of Lodz Sino-Japanese relations in the context of the sub-national cooperation
12:15-12:40	Toshiyaki Ozaki , Copenhagen Business School Comparative Institutional Advantage or Disadvantage? Rise, Fall, and Change of the Keiretsu Supply-chain Network under Global Competition

12:40-14:00 Lunch (and group photo)

Emerging Scholars

	Chair: Yveline Lecler, Université de Lyon IAO
14:00-14:30	Yusuf Avci , University of Sheffield Negotiation, Appropriation and Contestation: Life in Japanese Detention Centres
	Comments: Ana Goy Yamamoto
14:30-15:00	Aya Hino , Ca-Foscari University, Venice Internationalisation of what? The development of international/global Japanese studies and its implications
	Comments: Marie Roesgaard
15:00-15:30	Michael Fernandez , Lyon Institute of East Asian Studies (IAO) The Japanese Hydrogen Society program, a revolution?
	Comments: Werner Pascha
15:30-16:00	Clare Richardson-Barlow , University of Leeds Cross-border Electricity Trade in East Asia: Energy Market Integration & Clean Energy Development within Regional Governance Structures
	Comments: Jørgen Delman

16:00-16:30 Break

Revisiting the Internationalization of Japan

	Chair: Marie Roesgaard, University of Copenhagen
16:30-16:55	Ana Goy Yamamoto , Autonomous University of Madrid How cool is Japan? A brief assessment of soft power on tourism policies and regional development
16:55-17:20	Camilla Nellemann , Copenhagen Business School Hybridizing management practices at MHI-Vestas
17:20-17:45	Marcin Socha , University of Lodz Debate on internationalization and the revision of Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Law in Japan
17:45-18:00	Closing remarks

Dinner at DIAMOND RICE

27 April

Venue: NIAS – Nordic Institute of Asian Studies, room 18.1.08, Øster Farimagsgade 5, 1353 Copenhagen

9:30-13:00	Business meeting for board members (others are welcome to join)
------------	---